Mia Mikic is a trade economist with a keen interest in sustainable development and with a proven track record and experience in academia and international civil service. She is a board member of the Friends of Multilateralism Group, Board of Advisors for the Trade Policy Research Forum and the Advisory Board of the Center on Inclusive Trade and Development, Georgetown Law, USA, and a Research Associate at the Waikato University, New Zealand.

Mia is also an Advisor at Large for the Asia-Pacific Research and Training Network on Trade (ARTNeT), an open network of research and academic institutions and think-tanks in the Asia-Pacific region, and a Visiting Fellow at the Institute for Euro-Asian Studies, the Faculty of Economics and Business, University of Zagreb. She is part of the Global Advisory Council of the Centre for a Smart Future, Sri Lanka, and a member of the International Advisory Board for the Institute of Malaysian and International Studies (IKMAS), Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia. She is providing advisory services in a broad area of trade, development and global governance as a member of advisory boards, consultancy as well as journal editorial boards. Mia is pleased to collaborate on modernising international trade curricula.

She was a Director, Trade, Investment and Innovation Division in United Nations ESCAP (2017-2021). Prior to her 16-year UN tenure, during 2001 to 2005 she was Head of the Department of Economic Theory, Professor of International Economics and Director of Economic and Business International Program at the University of Zagreb, and Senior Lecturer at the University of Auckland (1988-2005). She held various academic and teaching positions at the University of Zagreb from 1978 to 1988.

She has a Doctorate in Economics from the University of Zagreb (1985), Masters of International Business from St. Mary's College of California (1981), and Bachelors of International Trade, University of Zagreb (1978).

Please visit www.miamikic.page for more information.