Your plan

Up-front discount | Tax credit

The most important thing is to get Rewiring Ready. This means creating an electric plan, like the households in our case studies. Of course, your plan needn't be as extensive. Just knowing what's available to you, and how to get ready to electrify, is your first step. Because if your furnace dies in the middle of a cold winter night, you may make an emergency decision that locks in higher costs and fossil fuels emissions for the next 20 years. We've grouped things that make sense to upgrade together in the table below. Fill in the year you might upgrade each of these items. We've done the first one for you, to encourage you to switch to a clean electricity plan ASAP!

[9] 25C provides households a 30% tax credit for an electrical panel upgrade, capped at $600, if it's upgraded in conjunction with another upgrade covered by 25C (like a heat pump or heat pump water heater). 25D provides households a 30% uncapped tax credit for an electrical panel upgrade if it's upgraded in conjunction with rooftop solar.

[10-11] In 2023, the electric vehicle incentives will be accessible as tax credits. Starting in 2024, these incentives will be transferable to dealerships in exchange for up-front discounts.

*Not every household will be eligible for every incentive: product standards, income limits, and other eligibility requirements apply. For more information on the incentives, check out our calculator.
